

St. John's Church, Polegate, list by Site and Plot Number of Inscription on memorial stones.

1.	Church Canon Law forbids the scattering of ashes in church grounds.
2.	By Law, ashes must be buried in an identified and recorded place under the direction of the parish.
3.	Canon Law emphasises The Garden as a special place of prayer and reflection.
4.	This Garden of Rest was constructed in 1953 in Remembrance of the Second World War.
5.	There are 412 authorised plots with nearly 900 interments recorded.
6.	The first interment was on Thursday 28 th January 1954.
7.	By the year 2000, all plots were purchased and in use.
8.	Depending on how deep the first interment was made, up to three may be accomodated in each plot.
9.	In 2008 the Archdeacon directed that work be undertaken to improve the appearance of the Garden.
10.	By 2010, memorial stones had been re-set in accordance with the running records and inscriptions were recorded.
11.	If you have found the person's Plot Number on the Alphabetical list (elsewhere on this website)....
	....you will find the Memorial Stone Inscription below, as recorded up to November 2022.

Here is the hedge between Church Road and the garden.
